Social Justice (Samaji N'yaya) NON-ARABIC SPEAKERS MISS FRIDAY SERMONS, By Reema Memon. "At the World Conference of mosques (Makkah 1975), hundreds imams from around the world unanimously accepted that the Friday sermons can in local languages. Non-Arabic speaking expatriates living in Saudi Arabia are still waiting [Saudi Gazette]

Memon Language Series - "Panji Mithi Boli Memoni"

"presently, we may not be facing a crisis of identity but think of next fifty or hundred years. In years to come, we may loose our identity as a separate group unless we do something to develop "memoni" – the only binding force between us into a full fledged language."

Good to KNOW:

- "The Memons are people with a rich, colourful past but without any historians to record it, let alone analyse or laud the achievements of their ancestors. Just as nature abhors a vacuum, so historians abhor a historical vacuum and tend to fill it with myths and prejudices. Until now the Memons have taken a view of history not dissimilar to the one Napoleon took. Asked by one of his generals about the impact one of his battle plans would have on history, Napoleon is believed to have said: 'Let us make history first then let historians write it.'"
