Social Justice (Samaji N'yaya)

On social accountability

‘The Prophet (May Allah exalt his mention and protect him from imperfection) said: “Every Muslim has to give charity. The people asked: “O Allah’s Prophet! If someone has nothing to give, what should he do?” He said: “He should work with his hands and benefit himself and also give in charity (from what he earns).”

➤ Good to know: khutba al-nikah by Mufti Taqi Usmani

In Islamic Law, marriage is celebrated with two witnesses and terms of agreements (ejab wa qabul) acceptable to both parties. In addition, the Prophet (peace be upon him) set a way for this ceremony that he would deliver a talk (khutba) before the marriage agreement. In this sermon, God is praised, salutations are sent on the Prophet (peace be upon him), and three specific verses from the Quran are quoted. The Prophet (peace be upon him) has exhorted these three verses from the Quran to be recited during the marriage sermon. The first verse is from Chapter Women (Surah Nisa', 1); The second verse is from Chapter the Family of Imran (Surah aal-Imran, 102); The third verse that the Prophet (peace be upon him) mentioned during the marriage sermon is from Chapter the Confederates (Surah Ahzab, 71).
