Umar ibn Abi Salamah said: “I was a boy under the care of Allah’s Messenger (pbuh) and my hand used to go around the dish. So Allah’s Messenger (pbuh) said to me, ‘Son! Mention the name of Allah, eat with your right hand, and eat from what is nearest to you on the dish.’ Since then, this has been my manner of eating.” Narrated by Bukhari [Hadith of the Month]

MEMON HISTORY: AKBANI MAHAL, Lakhpat, Kutch Dist., Gujarat, India:
“NOTE WRITTEN ON THE WALL OF AKBANI MAHAL.” Welcome to the Akbani Home. The Akbani family was one of the most prestigious trading families of Lakhpat. Prosperous and generous, the family was known to offer shelter to the poor during natural calamities such as droughts or cyclones.

The Akbani home was a massive complex connecting five structures which housed five Akbani brothers. With dozens of rooms and 120 intricately carved windows, the mahal highlights the exceptional wealth generated by trade in the 18th century in Lakhpat. Belonging to the Memon community, who originated in Sindh, the Akbani family, it is said, placed gold coins in the foundation of the building to indicate wealth! [info courtesy: Abdul Rashid Akbani]. Note: Lakhpat was deserted, and most Memons moved out after the 1819 earthquake. See also: Akbani Family tree (Cutchi Memon)
