- Good Read: The Day Quaid led a Procession to our House - By: Majyd Aziz Balagamwala: January 24, 1940 was a red-letter day in the history of this town. It was on that day, that Bantva's Muslim denizens festooned the place with buntings and flags to welcome Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah who was making his first ever trip to this village.... The grand old man of Bantva and the paterfamilias of the Dada family, Seth Hussein Kassam Dada, very graciously offered his bungalow at his farm for the comfort and convenience of the undisputed leader of the Indian Muslims. ### Social Justice (Samaji N'yaya) Series - (Iman fitness building): Importance of the Father:

"Thus, as I mark Father's Day this year, I recount the stories of these other fathers – these Prophets of God – and their stories teach me about compassion and humility, kindness and wisdom. I know that I will make mistakes as a father – I am only human being, but I pray that I can learn from my mistakes and try the best I can to be a father like unto these noble men of God." posted by Hesham A. Hassaballa [Read more: Prophetic Models of Fatherhood].

Memon Language Series - "Panji Mithi Boli Memoni" 'Our Version of Cutchi':

"Cutchi language has its own script known as Khojaki (of Khojas) script but it is no more in use. ... After most of the Nasserpuria Memons from Cutch moved to Mombasa and firmly established themselves, they began to learn Swahili... With the passage of time, a lot of the original Cutchi words were replaced with Swahili words..." source: Nasserpuria Memon wanderlust and it's effect on community, Culture and Traditions' : p. 73 [More about the book]
