Good to know: Cut wedding cost by Rs 50,000 to help poor tie the knot: Memons, Mohammed Wajihuddin | Times of India | Oct 25, 2017

MUMBAI: Dismayed with lavish weddings in the community, the Memons have decided to contribute at least Rs 50,000 to a `wedding fund' by cutting cost of their family members' ceremonies. This fund is being used to sponsor mass marriages of the underprivileged within the community and even outside it.

Iqbal Memon Officer (president All India Memon Jamat) said members in the community have been urged to contribute to the fund before they hold weddings. Welcoming the move, senior social activist and a Memon from Bandra Shadaab Patel said: "This scheme makes sense. Since preventing people from spending huge money on their children's weddings is almost impossible, it is good idea that they are being persuaded to contribute for marriages of the underprivileged," continue reading
